City of Somers Point Fills New Recreation Role

Somers Point, NJ, April 2021:The City of Somers Point is pleased to announce the hiring of Douglas Shallcross as new Recreation Director for the City. Please join us in welcoming Doug to this new leadership role on behalf of the Administration, City Council, Volunteers, and the Residents that we serve.

Doug has previously served in recreation roles in Ocean City NJ and is a youth football coach outside of the office. Doug also has experience in media production, event promotion, and content creation at a local radio station. His involvement with youth sports programs and event management is a welcome addition to the City.

Doug holds a bachelor's degree from Stockton University in Communication Studies with a concentration in Media Production where he was on the Dean's List. In his new role with the City, Doug will oversee the City's recreation facilities and programs as well as head up all promotional efforts.

To Contact Doug please feel free to email him at Dshallcross@spgov.org.
